9 Thursdays' Vrat and Puja
of Shri Saibaba of Shirdi

A miraculous vrat for happiness, peace, prosperity, knowledge, health and wealth

Introduction

Nisha Jani was born in Ujjain, the holy city of Mahakal. Her original name is Neeta Jani. She is affectionately called as Nisha by her near and dear ones. Since her childhood she was brought up in a spiritual environment. She was inclined towards spiritualism and believed in the tenets of Sai's mantra "God is one". Compassion towards other living beings, mutual tolerance between members of various creeds and sects, Unity, Humanitarian values etc from her early age. She believes that to love God, one need not sacrifice his worldly life (samsar). By leading a family life also, one can surrender his soul, mind, body and wealth according to ones' capacity.

At present she is serving as teacher. By Sai's grace, her Gujarati book was published in the year 2000. As the demand for Hindi version increased, Hindi book was published in the year 2002. Her wish was to share Sainath's wonderful miracles in other devotees' lives and experiences in her own life with others, thus spreading Sainath's greatness and fame and make the people chant Sai Bavani, Datta Bavani with love and devotion. Initially, these books were distributed free of cost. As the number of devotees observing this vrat increased, the demand for the books increased and the printing cost also increased. We wanted these books to reach each and every person. But free distribution to everyone was beyond our capacity. So we had to fix a minimum and affordable price for this book. Even today these books are given free of cost for needy and poor.

In this kaliyug, devotion to Sai should spread everywhere, in each home and person to person, Sai leelas should be sung with love and fervor. This is our intention behind printing this book. Let peace prevail everywhere. Let Sai shower his blessings to all.

*Sai ! Grant me a boon which includes one and all !
Thus I am not deprived of anything, so be saints and all !*

Sai Baba, one of the foremost saints of modern India, lived in Shirdi for sixty years and elevated it to a great spiritual centre. By the sheer brilliance of his spiritual magnetism, he drew numerous devotees towards him. Even today he is a dynamic spiritual force which is invoked by countless devotees for spiritual and material welfare. The devotees' experiences who observe this vrat is itself a great evidence of his spiritual splendor which dazzles bright even after he has left his mortal body several years ago. We have a great faith in Sai. This vrat has gained popularity in Gujarat. To benefit the devotees of other regions, this book is already published in many languages like Marathi, Tamil, Hindi and now in English.

We sincerely bow to my Lord Shri Saibaba who has blessed me this glorious opportunity of translating this work. We are ever indebted to his mercy towards us. We pray to God that Sainath should be enthroned in our heart forever and his lotus feet should be our shelter.

We sincerely thank Mrs. Nisha Jani who gave us this noble work.

Preface

Sai Baba appeared as a young lad of sixteen years under the Neem tree in Shirdi.

Saibaba incarnated in this world of mundane existence to uplift the poor and suffering mankind with the Earth as his mother and Holy Supreme as his father.

Saints don't belong to any caste or religion. Their noble mission is to spread compassion, peace and guide the humanity to salvation. He, the ocean of mercy told that God is One and guided his devotees to realize this immense truth. He advised that, because the past was imperfect and future is uncertain, we must not spoil perfect present. His two mantras were faith and perseverance. What is wanted, on our part is whole-hearted devotion to him.

When a devotee has got firm faith and devotion, his wishes are soon fulfilled. Devotion to Sai should burn brightly in our hearts like the eternal fire Dhuni of Sai. We should listen to our inner self and immersed in the devotion of Sai as a bee in sweet smelling lotus.

Sai asked his devotees not to search God outside, because God is very much within us.

Whoever has got complete and whole hearted devotion to Sai baba, will have his calamities and danger warded off and his welfare will be attended by baba. Sai has assured his devotees that he will always stand by his devotees at the time of crisis and the devotees will certainly experience his presence and Sai will take the favorite form of his devotee to bless his children.

Sai is ever indebted to one who surrenders his body, soul and wealth. If we cast our burden on him, He bears it for us.

Whenever there is a decay of dharma, and an ascendancy of unrighteousness, God manifests himself. For the protection of the virtuous, the destruction of vicious, and the establishment of righteousness, God incarnates in this world age after age.

Saibaba of shirdi is one of these incarnations. Devotion to Sai is the powerful magnet which attracts crores of people.

Nobody knows his religion or caste. He sang quranic verses beautifully at the same time verses quoted from Hindu scriptures. He acted as a unique bond between Hindus and Muslims.

Sai gave wonderful vision to his devotees in form of their favorite deities. Fortunate devotees were blessed with the vision of Vitthal, Shiva, Ram, and Krishna and by taking Sai's form he delighted many devotees in their dreams.

Even today, many years after leaving his earthly body, his devotees experience Sai baba's Holy Spirit relieving them out of their miseries.

Nobody can count the miracles Baba performed during his lifetime.

Spiritual magnetism of Sai still attracts his devotees, and when a devotee cries with despair and distress, Baba wipes his tears and the devotee experiences merciful help at the time of crisis.

Sai baba is God.

Sai vrat story

A pious lady named Kokila and her husband Mahesh were living in a city. They had great affection towards each other. But Mahesh's nature was quarrelsome and had little control over his speech and language. Neighbours were irritated by his nature. But Kokila was a pious religious lady. She had immense faith in god and coped up all troubles patiently. Slowly, her husband's business went through a rough weather and income was almost nil. Mahesh started staying in house the entire day and his quarrelsome nature worsened.

One afternoon, an aged sadhu (saint) came and stood at the entrance of their home. His face shone with a unique luster. He asked for rice and pulses. Kokila paid obeisance to the sadhu and offered him rice and pulses. The saint blessed her 'Sai will bless you with happiness'. Kokila replied in frustration that happiness is not in her destiny and narrated him, her entire sorrowful story.

The Saint advised her to observe Saibaba's vrat for 9 Thursdays by having fruits, liquids or by taking food only once on Thursday. If possible to visit Sai Baba's mandir, perform Sai's puja at home, complete the vrat with due formalities on 9th Thursday by feeding the poor, distribute Sai vrat books to 5, 11 or 21 persons according to the devotee's capacity and thus spread the power of Sai vrat. This has miraculous effects and is best suited for this kaliyug. It fulfills the innermost wishes of a devotee. But the devotee should have immense faith and devotion towards Saibaba. Whoever observes and completes this vrat with due formalities, all his desires will be fulfilled by Baba.

Kokila also took a vow to observe 9 Thursdays vrat and she completed it with all formalities like feeding the poor, distribution of Sai vrat books on 9th Thursday.

The troubles in their house vanished and they were filled with peace and happiness. As Ramesh's quarrelsome nature also changed for good, his business also picked up, and they prospered and started living happily.

One day kokila's brother-in law and his wife came from Surat and amidst conversation, they told sadly that their children are not studying well and they failed in their examinations. Kokila explained to them the power of 9 Thursdays Sai vrat and she told them that devotion to Sai will enable their children to study well. But faith and patience are very important. Kokila's sister-in-law wanted the details about the vrat.

Kokila told her, to observe the fast by taking fruits, liquids or have food only once on all 9 Thursdays. Have darshan of Sai in a nearby Sai mandir on all 9 Thursdays.

Miraculous effects of Sai vrat

Knee pain vanished miraculously (Experience of Nisha Jani)

Whatever the disease may be, if a person cries in despair to Sai, Sai relieves him of the pain and cures him of the disease.

I was suffering from severe pain in my knees. A few days back, my legs were fractured and bones near my knees were broken severely. Doctor suggested an operation, but I refused. I became alright after some days. Suddenly pain started again. I couldn't dare to walk even few steps for a week and the pain was so severe. All our family members were planning for a shirdi trip during holidays and also for a Rajasthan trip. It was impossible for me to even think of accompanying them. I had created a scene because of my pain and I started feeling that I will not be able to walk in future.

I had faith in Sainath. I had done fasting before, but not with any formalities or rules, one of my acquaintances told me the power of 9 Thursdays Sai vrat. I also wished to observe the vrat. I somehow gathered courage and rode my scooter to Sai mandir. I prayed to him that I also want to visit shirdi and would like to visit Rajasthan, the pain is unbearable and if my knee pain vanishes before I step out of the mandir, I vow to observe 9 Thursdays Sai vrat.

I had never experienced such a wonderful miracle in my life. As I stepped out of the mandir, my knee pain vanished miraculously. I felt very happy. I visited Shirdi, Rajasthan and walked a lot even trekked mountains with Sai's blessings without trace of pain.

One day she had harde with warm water and afterwards noticed that the glass was broken and a little piece of glass was missing. She doubted that the glass piece would have gone into her stomach along with the medicine. She searched for the glass piece but she could not find it. After two hours, blood came along with the stools and did not stop. Loss of blood was more and she became almost unconscious. It was 1'o'clock in the midnight. Rameshbhai lighted a lamp in front of Saibaba's photo and prayed that if the flow of blood stops and his wife is saved, then he will observe the vow of 9 Thursdays' vrat. After some time the glass piece came along with stools and blood flow also stopped. He took her to the hospital at the same night and the doctor told them that it could have been fatal if glass piece had caused any internal injury, but now she was perfectly alright. Rameshbhai also observed Sai vrat and fulfilled his vow.

Arati Translation (English)

Oh Sai Baba, we wave lights before you, the bestower of happiness to the Jivas. Give us - Your servants and devotees rest under the dust of your feet. Burning (destroying) desire, You remain absorbed in Your Self and show the Lord (God) to the aspirants. As one feels intently, You give him experiences or realizations accordingly. Oh kind-hearted, Your power is such! Meditation on Your name removes our fear of the samsar. Your method of work is really unfathomable as You always help the poor and helpless. In this Kaliyug, You - the all-pervasive Datta, have really incarnated as Saguna Brahma. Ward off the fear of samsar of the devotees who come to You every Thursday so as to enable them to see the feet of the Lord. Oh! God of Gods, I pray that let my treasure be the service of Your feet. Feed Madhav and (you should utter your name here) with happiness as the cloud feeds the Chatak bird with pure water and thus keep up Your Word. Amen!
